About L'Olivier

Access to "L'Olivier" is through large French windows from the terrace and a garden with an olive tree, into a spacious living room which has a double sofa bed, and on the same floor there is the kitchen.

Stairs lead up to the large bedrooms, one has a double and a single bed, the other, 3 single beds, there is also a shower-room and independent toilet.

L'Olivier is one of five gites located at The Domaine de l'Astic. The 5 gites are furnished in a southern French style and are all self-contained and independent. They have been awarded "3 stars" by "Gîtes de France". Combinations of gites can be hired to suit large groups or families. Contact owner for details.

Each gite has a private terrace partially shaded by a roof and equipped with furniture and a barbecue for dining outside.

All the gites have a fully equipped modern kitchen including dishwasher and microwave oven, electric heating, TV socket and parking places.

Free laundry facilities are available.

Whether you are looking for somewhere to relax as a family, a couple or on your own, Janik and Graham will be delighted to welcome you to one of their gites or guest rooms. The Domaine de L'Astic is also ideal for family reunions, groups or equally for organising seminars.

You will also be able to enjoy the private swimming-pool (75 m2) with an adjoining shallow pool for children. The pool is securely enclosed in line with the latest standards, providing protection for your children and peace of mind for you. The swimming pool opens from 1st of May to 30th of September.

There are also indoor game's rooms with table tennis, table football and a pool table. Outside there are play areas with a volley ball court, children swings and "œboules".

The mini-farm with goats and poultry is very popular with children
