About Petit Coin

Un petit coin de France is a converted 150-year-old barn, which retains its character with exposed beams, beechwood floors, stone walls, and a wood burner taking centre stage. The gite has 2 double bedrooms which are light and airy, with wooden floors, its original beams and traditional stone walls.

Each bedroom has its own en-suite facilities. One of the bedrooms has a vaulted ceiling while the other has a balcony.

Downstairs, the living/kitchen area is open plan, with two sets of double doors leading onto a private terrace with barbecue. The kitchen is fully equipped (including washing machine) with everything you need should you become bored with being waited on in the local restaurants.

The solar heated swimming pool has a large terraced sun bathing area with sun loungers and an arbour to provide shade when needed, topped with a magnificent view over open countryside.

As holidays are precious and we understand our clients' need for privacy we have therefore made sure that each of our gites are completely independent of each other.
