About Maison du Cure

La Maison du Curé dates from 1823 and was originally a small cottage and stable belonging to the village priest. After the last priest of Cormatin retired in the 1990s the house was modernised and extended to make a comfortable three bedroomed house.

It has 3 bedrooms and sleeps 5/6 people. It is ideal for families and is available throughout the year.

Guests have the use of free WiFi, and the television receives French digital and English satellite channels. The DVD player is complete with a selection of DVDs.

The house has gas central heating and there are additional electric flame effect fires in the dining room and sitting room.

The modern kitchen is equipped with a ceramic hob and electric oven, microwave, fridge freezer, washing machine and coffee filter machine.

Downstairs is a shower room and toilet, and upstairs is the bathroom with shower and separate toilet. Towels are provided.

The front bedroom has a double bed (140cm x 200cm) and an extendable bed (80cm x 130cm-190cm). The back bedroom has a double bed (140cm x 200cm) and a single bed (90cm x 200cm) while the third bedroom has a single bed (90cm x 200cm). All the bedrooms have a washbasin. All bedding is provided and the beds are ready on your arrival.

At the rear is a small enclosed garden with trees and a small lawn. Tables, chairs and sun umbrellas are provided, as is a barbeque. In the garage you can play table tennis and we have five bicycles for use by guests.
