About Four Au Pain

This self catering holiday cottage was originally a bread oven once supplying the hamlet and is now the focal point of a very interesting, self-contained modern cottage. The mezzanine has a double bed and is accessed by a wooden stair. A rustic charm has been conveyed here with exposed roof timbers. The ground floor is tiled throughout and comprises a lounge/dining room comfortably furnished with settee and armchairs, with the original bread oven an interesting feature, a well equipped kitchen and bathroom. The ceiling to floor windows in the lounge provide a beautiful view of the woodland and countryside beyond.
