About Honeysuckle Cottage

Honeysuckle Cottage is within the grounds of the Manoir de Guervihan which is a typical Breton manor house dating from the 17th century standing in its own parkland grounds of 4 acres. Opposite the manor are the former stables which have been tastefully converted into 2 self catering holiday cottages offering a peaceful and relaxing retreat from the congestion and stress of everyday life.

Each cottage has its own furnished terrace with access to the grounds and its many facilities including swimming pool, full size boule court, barbeque and grassed areas for leisure and relaxation.

The interiors of the cottages retain the character of the old stables with beamed ceilings, some exposed stonework and comfortable furnishings to a high standard..
