

Maison Baudinard

Provence Alpes Cote d'Azur / Var / Baudinard-sur-Verdon

About Maison Baudinard

Enjoy truly breath taking views of the wild countryside and spectacular sunsets, an artist's delight. A self catering 18th century three story house opposite a restaurant giving the convenience of a hotel. An old village house set in a beautiful provençal village near the Lac de Sainte Croix and Gorges du Verdon. It has a large terrace of 18 m². The village, perched on a hill at an altitude of 630 meters, has maintained its old fashioned Provençal appeal and is in the midst of a nature reserve, which is rich in flora and fauna. The scenery here is astonishing and diverse. This area was never really discovered until the beginning of the 20th century, the two Verdon Gorges have fascinated innumerable visitors ever since. The two canyons are separated by the Lac de Sainte Croix.

A sofa bed allows an additional two guests.
