

La Grange

Auvergne / Cantal / Ydes-Bourg

About La Grange

La Grange is a 2 bedroom (sleeping up to 6) gite in the Cantal department of the Auvergne, forming half of a recently converted 17th century stone barn. Set amidst the extinct volcanoes of the Massif Central, the gite is quietly located in the small picturesque hamlet of Ydes-Bourg, close to the town of Bort-les-Orgues. A picturesque spot with superb scenery - good for walking, sightseeing & cycling.

The gite occupies half of a traditional Cantal stone barn, built in 1824 and converted into a comfortable gite in 2012.

The gite is arranged over 3 floors & retains some of the traditional features of the barn. There are 2 double bedrooms with an additional sofa bed in the dining area that sleeps another 2 people. The gite enjoys views towards the historic village of Ydes-Bourg with its church built by the Knights Templar & surrounding hills. Outside there is a good sized garden with swings/ slide, picnic table & barbecue
