Lagrasse is classed as one of France's most beautiful villages & lies in the foothills of the Corbières between Carcassonne and Narbonne and only 40 minutes from the beaches of the Mediterranean.

The village has 6 restaurants, pizzeria, a bakery 2 caf  /bars, artisanal shops, 2 epicer  s, tabac, post office, cash dispenser, doctors & chemist.

The river Orbieu provides excellent swimming in the summer months.

Lagrasse's Abbey founded in the 8th century, is shared between the commune and the Chanoines monks both of whom welcome visitors.

The village is very animated in the summer months with various music festivals, piano concerts, theatre, circus, pottery & book fairs also a fine fireworks display on the 14th July followed by animations and on the 14th an even bigger display in nearby Carcassonne.
