About The Alchemy Garden

The ideal location for a wonderful holiday or retreat deep in the heart of the French countryside yet only 10 minutes drive from the spectacular Aveyron river and gorge and 15 minutes from medieval St Antonin Noble val with its famous Sunday market. Toulouse airport is 90 minutes drive away.

The house and accommodation is simple and rustic but and equipped with dishwasher, two fridge freezers, washing machine and wifi connection. There are two double rooms and one room with two single beds. All the rooms have French windows that open out into the garden and the place is wonderfully quiet.

The garden has been sensitively landscaped with rock features, little stone pathways and beds of beautiful flowers. 35 different species of butterflies and moths have been spotted on the lavender bushes and wild deer occasionally come to visit. The woods are full of nature spirits, ancient pathways covered in moss and magical shady glens. You can enjoy the natural sounds of the cuckoo in spring, and later the nightingale, cicadas in the heat of the summer and a host of other birds to the full.

Popular with all nature lovers, artists, writers, walkers and those involved with the healing arts.

'The Alchemy Garden' is a safe and nurturing environment that is ideal for 'recharging' your batteries in a loving and safe environment that encourages creative ideas, unconditional love, playfulness and spontaneity.

Art tuition is available with the owner/artist Jenni Rodger for a reasonable extra price.

Jenni's classes are fun and inspiring and popular for beginners and those lacking in confidence in their artistic abilities.
