Brittany / Finistere / Spezet

About Tirnanog, Ideal For Families

"Tirnanog is a large, traditional Breton house situated in the hamlet of Bodizel a short walk from the colourful village of Spezet. The nearby village which historically belonged to Cornwall, is steeped in myth and legend and home to excellent restaurants, boulangerie, charcuterie, post office and several bars.

The house has great character with open fires and a wealth of exposed beams, however gas central heating has been installed to ensure you remain cosy during the winter months. The large, private enclosed garden with expansive lawn and apple trees is ideal for children; swings, slide, paddling pool and bicycles (for both adults and children) are available.

The accommodation comprises of:

Bedrooms: Bedroom 1 has a double bed, 2 two singles and 3 has a double and single bed.

Kitchen: Traditional bread oven, gas cooker, microwave, fridge/freezer, coffee maker, kettle, toaster, washing machine and tumble dryer. Ironing facilities.

Living room: Large and spacious room with satellite TV, DVD player, CD player, double bed settee, open fire, sofa and comfortable armchairs.

Bathroom: Large downstairs bathroom with shower over bath and bidet, separate WC with grab rails.

Exterior: large lawned, enclosed gardens, garden furniture, swing, slide, paddling pool, BBQ, off road parking.

Please note: All linen and towels are included in the rental price and one well behaved pet is welcome free of charge.

Perfectly situated to explore the beauty of Brittany, within the Parc d'Armorique area- Armorica Regional National Park, including it's 3 islands, Tirnanog provides the ideal base to cater for everyone with the wide range of activities available.

The diversity of the landscape from the rivers, lakes and rock formations that can be found in Huelgoat to the unspoilt beaches and rugged headlands that are within a thirty minute drive provide ample opportunities for exploring and indulging in the area. Wildlife enthusiasts are also well catered for with beavers otters and birds of prey the most commonly spotted within the Parc d'Armorique.

Come and explore Brittany in the perfect base!"
