About Les Arbres

Grandmont Gitesâ€¦ a chameleon in years gone by. Originally a hostel, later a hotel, bar & brasserie and at one time even, a pumping station!.

To this day Gite Les Arbres retains the charm and character of its heyday as the former bar & brasserie where locals and passersby congregated for drinking, eating, dancing the night away.

In fact, the original bar now separating kitchen and lounge has been the resting place for many a French elbow of residents still among the pretty hamlet of Grandmont to this very day.

The gite sleeps up to 5 guests and spread over one ground floor level. Exposed stone walls, chunky wooden beams, a huge fireplace with Godin log burner and just bags of character throughout. The master bedroom leads on to the pretty private patio with seating and BBQ. The second bedroom can be arranged with either double bed or twin beds. A campaign bed provides sleeping for a fifth person.

The space is well equipped throughout and furnished throughout. Kitchen, spacious lounge, large dining area with seating for six and very French style bathroom with shower, sink and toilet.

The gite is also available for winter rental from around late September up to early April.

The gite is one of three gites at the Grandmont Gites complex. Guests of all gites have use of the pool, grounds and activities.
