About La Maison du Soleil

This lovely Quercy stone building built in the 1800's has been lovingly converted into a luxurious 2 bedroom gite. Set in 2.5ha of pretty parkland nestling in its own little valley, La Maison du Soleil is close to all amenities but quiet enough to ensure you have a peaceful holiday.

On entering the property through impressive double barn doors you are welcomed into the cosy lounge area, original stone walls and beamed ceilings give added character. The gite is well equipped and furnished in a simple yet pleasing style. Subtle tones of beige and terracotta are accented with creams and greys to give a practical yet comfortable place to relax. UK Freesat TV or French channels, free wifi, CD, DVD player and Ipod doc are all supplied for those that need their technology! Alternatively, throw open all the doors and enjoy the warmth of the summer sun with the peacefulness of birdsong and French countryside. (There is even the option of snuggling up on the large sofa around the lovely wood burner on a cool night with a nice bottle of wine!)

The kitchen and dining area (off the lounge) are equipped for 8. The kitchen has all the modern appliances and kitchen equipment required, we even supply aprons and tea towels! Access from the back door takes you directly on to the private deck with parasol and outside dining table, chairs and sun loungers, together with a BBQ.

Off of each side of the lounge area are the two bedrooms, identical in size and layout with huge open beamed ceilings. Each room has a comfortable supper king bed (or 2x 90x200 singles). There are also sofabeds in each room that can be made up for a small weekly charge. The rooms are decorated with traditional furniture and modern soft furnishings to ensure maximum comfort whilst not compromising on style. Each room also has a large and well appointed private bathroom with separate toilet.

Access to the pool is on the other side of the property. It has ample parasols and sunbeds with stunning views.
