Aquitaine / Dordogne / Lanquais

About Lafage

Lafage, Lanquais, is an old stone farmhouse at the edge of the village (under 5 min walk away), straight across the valley from the medieval chateau. The house which sleeps 8 in three bedrooms, has been sympathetically modernised to retain centuries' worth of character producing an exceptional french gite, with new and traditional blending to transform the cottage into a comfortable home from home.

The area around the pool is paved for sunbathing, with a patio at the end near the house. The pool area is laid to lawn, at the edge of a field and is not overlooked.
